

Our media options are sadly governed by a only few well-positioned and monied folks now. Do not further decrease the ability of the American people to hear and see opinions from many sources. Democracy is not only about voting. Do not further erode democracy by reducing or eliminating the possiblity of many diverse views and outlets for voicing them.